WATER IN PLENTY.

Conditions About Tropic Are Now Most Promising. [TRIBUNE SPECIAL] Tropic, July 12.—Conditions are most promising for this locality. The harvest prospects are propitious and encouraging. The reservoir, although but partly finished, is in evidence, has the guarantee of abundance of water in the future, which will leave this section fortified against dry seasons. The rapid growth of this section is anticipated, as the only drawback to its development is the lack of ready access to assurance of ample water for all purposes. The desirability of location and productivity of the soil is second to none in the State, and awaits the hands of the diligent to utilize the resources of this richly situated Tropic. The district is full of minerals, wood and coal are in abundance, and the prospects for nearer railway communication is good.

BOAT CURLEW CAPSIZES.

Crew Tries to Swim From Overturned Boat and One of Them Drowned. Bristol, R. I., July 12.—One man was drowned and several others narrowly escaped a similar fate in Narragansett bay this afternoon, when the Providence slop yacht Curlew was capsized and the twelve occupants thrown into the bay. The man who lost his life was James Cronin, 37 years old, of Providence. The overturned boat would not support the weight of the twelve men and four of them decided to swim to the point. Three reached the shore in safety. All those remaining on the overturned boat except Cronin were taken off by a passing boat. He fell in and was drowned.

JUDGE BURNHAM NEXT.

Kentucky Candidates So Bitter Against Each Other That Dark Horse May Win. Frankfort, Ky., July 12.—Estimates on the delegates to the Republican State convention at Louisville next Wednesday that were selected at ninety-eight of the 119 county conventions yesterday show that out of the 2284 there are 1125 instructed, as follows: Belknap, 752; Wilson, 136; Pratt, 227. As it will require 1142 to nominate and it is clear that Belknap, the leader, cannot reach that point and that he will not allow Wilson to be nominated, there is talk of Judge Burnham as a compromise candidate.

Many of the negroes who left the city during the week are returning, and by the middle of the week business will have been resumed in Baptist town.

Park City

TRIBUNE BUREAU. Murray King, Correspondent. Sunday, July 12, 1903.

WILL SOON HAVE RIVAL.

Snake Creek District Is Coming to the Front. The Snake Creek mining district is coming to the front. If what is told be true, the St. Louis-Vassar will soon have a rival in the Big Four. The owners and promoters of the Big Four are in town attending to business connected with their property, and they have no hesitation in declaring that, in their opinion, they have a great showing. They have already spent $3000 to develop their property and are getting $6000 worth of treasury stock in order to push development. As soon as their present plans are completed they will increase the working force and endeavor to demonstrate the value of their property as far as possible.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. H. G. Bates returned today from Salt Lake, where she has been attending the wedding of her sister, Miss Ruth Winters. A. H. Mying, manager of the Minola, made a flying visit to Park City today, returning to Salt Lake on the afternoon train. M. H. Walker, who is connected with the St. Louis-Vassar, arrived from Salt Lake this morning. James Hickey on Main street today. Stock was among this morning's arrivals from Salt Lake. George L. Geiger, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shields, has returned to Park. Mrs. S. Nichols and family started for Idaho yesterday where they will remain for some time.

BOB STEEL ARRESTED.

Bob Steel, a habitual drunkard, was arrested this morning for disturbing the peace. Steel is in the habit of making it disagreeable for his family and neighbors in the house of the Donat-Kratz corner of liquor. On this occasion his language became so loud and vile that the neighbors sent for a police officer, and Steel was arrested tomorrow to answer for his sin. PLACED IN CITY JAIL. Jerry Murphy and a man who thinks his name is O'Brien were found in such a state of intoxication on Main street today, on account of having imbibed too freely that Police Officer Greenough decided they would be better off in the city jail, where they will be given a chance to sober up.

BOISE CITY ELECTION

Red-Hot Contest on in Idaho Capital.

GAMBLING IS THE ISSUE

Battle of the Ballots Will Occur on Tuesday.

No One Can Predict How the Fight Will End, as Indications Are for Much Scratching.

[TRIBUNE SPECIAL] Boise, Ida., July 12.—The city election will occur on Tuesday. There is an interesting contest between J. A. Finney, Republican, and J. H. Hawley, Democrat and Union Citizens, for Mayor. The fight is mainly a contest between the supporters and opponents of gambling. It is held that Mr. Finney is tied up with the gambling element, while Hawley is recognized as being free from any entanglement. A powerful effort is being made to hold ground that they should support the ticket and that he is a good citizen. On the other hand, the fact is pointed out by the opponents that the saloon men and all of the sporting element are supporting Finney. Hawley has pledged himself very positively to keep the vice
